Amtico flooring paves the way in Ireland. The Tullamore Court Hotel is perfectly situated in the heart of Ireland's picturesque countryside.

The 4* accommodation offers its patrons leisure facilities, rooms, a 20-metre swimming pool, a bistro, a bar and a restaurant, which was in desperate need of renovation.

The hotel's main restaurant hadn't been updated since the late 90s, so interior design practice Helen Casey Design Associates (HCDA) was called upon to bring the space into the 21st Century. HCDA replaced the restaurant's dated fast-food style booths, removed partitioning that separated the restaurant from the hotel's courtyard and laid eye-catching Amtico flooring throughout.

HCDA chose Gingham, a predefined colour and pattern combination from the Amtico Designers' Choice Collection. To complement the large space, the design was scaled-up, creating a look that is unique to the Tullamore Court Hotel. The resulting design is modern, tasteful and successfully reinvigorates the restaurant.

Designers' Choice Code

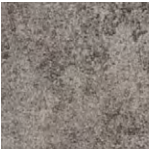

DC304 Gingham

Utilising an attractive Check laying pattern, Gingham provides modern style in a trio of monochromatic tones. While Gingham is offered as standard in 6-inch square tiles, the designers of this project chose an upscaled version to better suit the large space.

Bold statements. Big ideas. What our clients say.

“For this project, the flooring design consisted of three different colours, which were laid to create a tartan-effect pattern. Amtico provided excellent instructions and we would definitely use them again; we prefer fitting Amtico to any other LVT.”

Robert Kerbey
Owner and Director
LRK Flooring Systems Ltd

“The restaurant’s existing carpet and timber floors were extremely tired and well worn, so durability was a key factor when choosing its replacement. Amtico is known for its hard-wearing products and I am confident that the flooring will easily stand up to this busy hotel’s requirements.

“The diversity of Amtico’s designs led us to create a bespoke up-scaled look that is contemporary, fresh and airy and, importantly, in keeping with the overall character of the property.”
