This café impresses not only with its exceptional barista offerings, but also with its striking floor design.

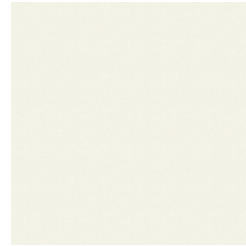

The intricate Chequer pattern from the Amtico Décor collection features mini tiles measuring 101.6 mm x 101.6 mm, creating a refined chessboard look. This versatile pattern is perfectly suited for feature spaces, as beautifully demonstrated in this project. It structures the room while adding a distinctive design statement that immediately captures attention.

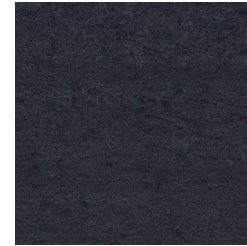

The timeless black-and-white aesthetic is achieved by combining the Amtico Signature Graphite Slate and Amtico Signature Pure Plain White designs. Together, they form a bold yet elegant foundation that complements contemporary interiors. A particularly charming detail is the dialogue between floor and furniture: the yellow table, featuring a chessboard surface and softly rounded corners, is subtly reflected in the flooring layout, which also incorporates curved edges. This thoughtful design interplay creates harmony within the space and results in a true eye-catcher with strong visual impact.

DC485 Chequer Mono

This mini masterpiece is part of the Amtico Décor range, an artisan collection full of historical floor designs. Chequer showcases classic Victorian quarry tiles and is available in two perfectly balanced colour combinations. In this project the contrast between Pure Plain White and Graphite Slate creates a traditional feel and works exceptionally well as a decorative detail in the space.
